

The airways and print media are already controlled by too few entities. We need more diversity, not less. (In case you care what "we the people" think, as opposed to the money-toting lobbyists.)